Jesus was moved with compassion

- He healed the sick

Matthew 14:14 When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

- He fed the hungry

Matthew 15:32 Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way.”

- He opened blind eyes

Matthew 20:34 Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

Jesus was moved with compassion

- He healed the lepers

Mark 1:40-41 A man with leprosy came to him and begged him on his knees, “If you are willing, you can make me clean.” 41 Filled with compassion, Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!”

- He raised the dead

Luke 7:11-15 Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. 12 As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. 13 When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, “Don’t cry.” 14 The and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stood sti “Young man, I say to you, get up!” 15 The dead man began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mothe asked for additional workers Matthew 9:36-38

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

37 Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. 38 Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”
