A grayscale illustration of a shepherd standing on a hillside, holding a staff and looking down at a flock of sheep grazing in a valley. The shepherd is positioned in the center-left, wearing a long coat and a hat. The sheep are scattered across the lower half of the image, some facing the viewer and others grazing. The background shows rolling hills and a clear sky.

Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve;

Young men, in the same way be submissive to those who are older. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, “God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”
