A dark, dramatic painting depicting the death of King Saul. He is shown from the waist up, wearing a blue robe with a yellow sash. He has a look of despair on his face and is holding a sword to his own throat. Another figure, partially visible on the right, is holding a long spear or sword, which appears to have just struck him. The background is dark and smoky.

Saúl murió por haberse rebelado contra el SEÑOR, pues en vez de consultarlo, desobedeció su palabra y buscó el consejo de una adivina. (14) Por eso el SEÑOR le quitó la vida y entregó el reino a David hijo de Isaí.

Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD; he did not keep the word of the LORD and even consulted a medium for guidance, 14 and did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

A dramatic painting depicting a scene from the crucifixion. In the center, Jesus hangs on a cross, his body contorted in pain. Below him, several figures are shown in various states of distress and despair. One man in the foreground has his hands raised in agony, while others look on with expressions of grief. The lighting is stark, creating strong shadows and highlights that emphasize the emotional intensity of the moment.

A dramatic painting depicting a scene from the crucifixion. In the center, Jesus is shown on the cross, his body slumped forward. To his left, a woman in a blue and yellow patterned headscarf looks up at him with her hands raised in despair. In the lower right foreground, a man in a white shirt and red vest is shown in a state of distress, holding his head in his hands. The background is filled with dark, turbulent clouds, suggesting a storm or divine judgment.
